

MANDATORY

(version 3.03) by Keith Bates - K-Type © 2004, 2007 - www.k-type.com - keith@k-type.com

Mandatory is a full font developed from the Charles Wright typeface used for UK vehicle registration plates. There is improved stroke separation on the M and W which are pointed at the centre, and the tail of the Q is thinner and clearer.

Mandatory has been designed to conform to the required proportions –

Height – 790 units

Width – 500 units

Stroke – 140 units

Sidebearings – 2 x 55 units (Letter spaces – 110 units)

Word/Group Space – 330 units

Only the Upper Case letters and the numerals are used for registration plates, although the capital I, which is the same as the 1, is not used and the Q will no longer be used but may still be required for updating old plates.

For designers, the font is completed with small capitals for the lower case, currency symbols, punctuation marks, printers' symbols and accented characters.

K-TYPE LICENCE AGREEMENT

FREEBIES (Unlicensed)

K-Type Freebies are free for personal use and do not require a licence.

However, Freebies used for Commercial and Entrepreneurial purposes need to be licensed at the same rates as Pay Fonts. Freebie Commercial Licences, Enterprise Licences and Custom Fonts are available from keith@k-type.com

COMMERCIAL LICENCE (Normal Licence)

Purchasing a K-Type font grants you non-exclusive rights to use the font commercially on paper, on film, online and embedded in documents.

The software may be stored on up to five workstations and output devices.

You cannot legally give the font to others or install it on their machines (with the exception of co-workers and your service bureau).

To place any K-Type font within other media will require an additional Enterprise Licence.

ENTERPRISE LICENCE (Extended Licence)

For Entrepreneurial use on an unlimited number of workstations and output devices, and where a font file is incorporated into a software product, each K-Type font will require an Enterprise Licence.

An Enterprise Licence is indefinite, but not exclusive.

CUSTOM FONTS

Commissioning a K-Type Custom Font grants you ownership upon payment – sole rights to use the font autonomously, exclusively and indefinitely.

Fonts are supplied "as is". Every effort is made to ensure that the files will behave properly, and whilst mistakes and omissions are corrected cheerfully and quickly, K-Type will not be liable for losses incurred by software failure.
